In the Library: New Additions!

The Air We Breathe: How We All Came to Believe in Freedom, Kindness, Progress, and Equality by Glen Scrivener. From the cover: “Today we assume that our modern values are obvious, natural, universal—but history tells a different story. Glen Scrivener takes you on a journey from Genesis to George Floyd, charting the course of the Christian revolution, and showing how it shaped our world and continues to make sense of the values we hold dear.

Adoniram Judson: Devoted for Life by Vance Christie. America's first foreign missionary, Judson served in Burma for over 38 years where he persevered through staggering difficulties. “His unremitting labor and devotion were used of the Lord to spread the Gospel and to establish healthy Christian congregations throughout Burma.”
